Application for Membership

The Environmental Bankers Association is a nonprofit national association located in Alexandria, Virginia. The primary purpose of the Association is to protect and preserve bank net income and assets from environmental exposure and liability resulting from lending and trust activities through the employment of environmental risk management in policies, programs and membership throughout the United States and internationally. Association voting membership is offered only to banks, trust companies and their affiliated financial service organization. Affiliate membership is open to others interested in our activities.

2010 Dues NOTICE

Thank you for your membership in the Environmental Bankers Association. This is your renewal invoice for year 2010 dues. Renewals are due before January 15, 2010; new members are accepted throughout the year. Dues are increased according to the Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA) index; the increase is waived for 2010.

Please mark the appropriate category of membership below and fill in the amount of the check, then mail both to EBA headquarters or to pay by credit card call 703-549-0977.

Also, remember to save the date for our upcoming EBA meetings, January 17 - 19, 2010 in San Diego, CA and June 13-15, 2010 in Alexandria, VA. Only paid voting members for 2010 may vote at the January 2010 membership meeting.

Sincerely,

Tacy Cook Telego, APR
Executive Co-Director
